Author Jana Bommersbach to visit Maricopa Public Library.

On Saturday, May 1, 2010, Maricopa residents will have the opportunity to meet and greet author Jana Bommersbach at the Maricopa Public Library. She will also be giving a brief presentation followed by a book signing session. The Maricopa Public Library has partnered with ONEBOOKAZ to make this event possible.

ONEBOOKAZ 2010 will feature two books by Arizona authors this year. Jana Bommersbach's The Trunk Murderess: Winnie Ruth Judd is the adult selection.

Both books were chosen by Arizonans through an online vote that took place during the month of September of 2009. The winning adult title was up against five other nominees, while the winning kids' book competed against three titles. Both of the winning titles feature Arizona people, places, and culture, fulfilling the newest goal of the ONEBOOKAZ program: to help Arizonans read their way to the upcoming State Centennial in 2012. As Arizona prepares for its 100th birthday, ONEBOOKAZ provides an opportunity for its citizens to come together to read and discuss books that increase their knowledge and appreciation of Arizona's unique history and culture.

Brought to Arizona in 2002, and coordinated by the Arizona State Library, Archives and Public Records' Center for the Book, ONEBOOKAZ is an exciting literacy program that brings communities together through reading. Beginning in April every year, this program encourages communities across the State of Arizona to read the same book at the same time and to participate in discussions, programs, and events centered on that book. One title is chosen for adults to read, and one title is chosen for kids. ONEBOOKAZ celebrates literature in the state of Arizona by encouraging the reading and exploration of a book and by fostering a sense of community through the shared experience of reading the same book, discussing themes, and involving participants in various events connected with the book.

ONEBOOKAZ 2010 kicks off in April 2010 with a literary event and awards ceremony. Other activities include statewide author talks, book signings, book discussions, and many more events. To read excerpts from the books, to learn more about the authors, to read about the other nominees, and to find out about ONEBOOKAZ events happening around the state, visit www.onebookaz.org and www.onebookaz.org/kids.

The Trunk Murderess: Winnie Ruth Judd tells the story of a 26-year-old beauty named Winnie Ruth Judd who was accused of murdering her two best girlfriends one hot Phoenix night in 1931. If history is right, she hacked up their bodies, stuffed the pieces into a trunk, and took them by train to Los Angeles as her baggage. If history is right, she was sentenced to die but "cheated the gallows" by acting insane. She spent nearly 40 years in Arizona's insane asylum—flummoxing officials by escaping six times. If history is right, she only got her freedom at age 66—after serving more time than any other convicted murderer in the history of the nation—because Arizona was finally tired of punishing her. But if history is wrong, Winnie Ruth Judd's life was squandered in a horrible miscarriage of justice. In this American crime legend, there is also the story of Phoenix, Arizona—a backwater town that would become a major American city—and the story of a unique moment in American history filled with social taboos. But most of all, it is the story of a woman with the courage to survive.

Jana Bommersbach is one of Arizona's most respected and acclaimed journalists. She has earned numerous national, state, and regional awards, including the prestigious Don Bolles Award for investigative reporting for the newspaper series on Winnie Ruth Judd that led to this book. She lives in Phoenix.
